“Giving Canadian children tools to be media and life wise”

There is no simple solution or strategy for the myriad of challenges faced by our youth today. Through TV&ME, and the broadcasting of our “Teachable Television Moments,” we are striving to support your efforts to empower children with the information, skills and knowledge essential to making positive, healthy choices when faced with issues such as substance abuse, child abuse, self-esteem, active living, bullying and media literacy.

A program of Concerned Children’s Advertisers
